

This school year, students will be exploring and investigating many different areas of science. The Science State Standards are broken up into four sections:

Force & Motion- How different forces work, Newton's Laws of Motion. Explain how forces act on objects at a distance and on Earth.

Matter & Energy Spheres- Technology improvements in weather prediction, show how matter and energy flow through the atmosphere, hy