

Arrowhead Panther Press

Message from the Editors

<± <cdY nci 0Y \Uj]b[U [fYUu winter! Enjoy our January issue!!
-Editor-In-Chief-

6FFFF! #0 dYhmWcXI GUm
warm and have a great winter!
Enjoy!
-Assistant Editor-

On January 15, 1929, Martin Luther King was born in Atlanta, Georgia. While growing up, Martin had a hard life. He was discriminated against because he had a darker skin color. He had to go to an all-black schcczXf]b_ zca U [gdYVU1 Xf]b_]b[fountain, and, while on the bus, he had to give up his seat for white people.

From a young age, Martin believed in God and, when he was 25, he became a pastor for the Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery, Alabama. Later on, he started his journey as a civil rights leader.

In 1955, the bus boycott occurred. The boycott lasted 385 days, and it became so YbgYz\hA Uf]b]g \ci gY k Ug Vca WY" Martin was arrested, but the racial segregation ended on all buses!

On August 28, 1963, Martin gave the famous, 17-a]bi fY `cb[l=<Uj Y 5 8fYUa I speech. In this speech, he states that he wants to see that, one day, his 4 children will be judged by their character, not their color. He also states that he wants to see black children join hands with white children and believe in

