

4. Read together. Find time to read together every day. It can be as simple as reading a book together, or as complex as reading a newspaper together. The key is to make it a habit.

5. Listen to your child read. When your child is reading, listen to them. This is a great way to help them improve their reading skills and to show them that you are interested in what they are doing.

